Sunday Worship Services - 8:30 A.M and 11:00 A.M

Here at Faith Community Lutheran... We almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow lessons and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

Holy Trinity

June 6 & 7, 2009

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.

The Lord Is in His Holy Temple

This was a phrase that I often sang in church when I was young: “The Lord is in His Holy Temple.” Too often it was just a phrase that people sang as part of the liturgy. But, there are times in our lives, sometimes when we seem to feel particularly vulnerable or depressed or are aware that we have really blown it, that we enter the doorway of the church, God’s holy temple, and discover something very powerful!

For Isaiah, he felt himself to be in the very presence of God—a holy place where he experienced the Holy One. Reread Isaiah 6:1-8! You can imagine how Isaiah felt! In the presence of God, the Lord of Hosts, he feels unclean and that those with whom he worked and lived were unclean also. Yet, in this very same Holy Place he receives forgiveness and is made clean! And in that awesome experience, Isaiah is now able to respond by volunteering to do what God needs him to do! It was a life changing moment!

The same is true for us. It is so easy to look around and see things going bad. We say, “Why doesn’t someone do something about it?” It is at that moment, in that holy place of encounter with God, that we realize that God has cleansed us and chosen us to “do something about” that which is off kilter!

Perhaps that was not our intent when we entered into God's presence, feeling guilty or tired or just plain blue. Yet God is the One who heals and brings wholeness into our lives. When that happens, we see the way to serve and bring the same healing power to others. What an awesome God we have! “The Lord IS in His holy temple” to meet us as we are!

Prayer: O Holy God, we come into your presence today. We too feel unclean, unworthy of such an experience. Cleanse us, heal us, that we might hear your voice calling us into your service. Amen. ~Tyger Penson

...a youth music and drama troupe based at Zion Lutheran Church in Cloquet, MN will be presenting “Kingdom Tales” at Faith on Sunday, June 14th at 7:30pm. NEW WINE strives to promote friendship and understanding among their students, who come from varied religious backgrounds.

Their 2009 production, “Kingdom Tales,” is a lively retelling of several parables, cleverly intertwining the lives of the characters in the play with the lives of those in the Bible stories. The program is approximately 90 minutes and is open to the public. A free will offering will be collected to help with the group’s travel expenses. You are certain to have a delightful evening!
